The United States Government, as represented by the Central Intelligence Agency, hereby contracts with you for the purchase of information and services of a confidential nature on a consultative basis under the following terms and conditions:

1. Payment. For the purchase of such information and services, your compensation will be at the rate of $30.00 per day of service and $15.00 per one-half day of service. As used in this paragraph, a day of service means any consultation covering a period in excess of four hours, and a one-half day of service means any period covering less than four hours of service. You will be required to certify to such days in which you are so engaged and, further, that you performed no duties for any other Government agency for which compensation has been or will be claimed. Payment will be made to you on the basis of such certification as approved by CIA. No taxes will be withheld from this amount, and it will be your responsibility to report this income under existing Federal income tax laws and regulations.

2. Travel. You will be reimbursed by CIA at rates not to exceed those authorized under applicable CIA regulations for necessary expenses incurred in connection with such travel as may be directed or authorized by the Assistant Director for Policy Coordination or his authorized representative. You will be required to account for such expenses in accordance with applicable CIA regulations.

3. Reports. All reports or studies and the documents connected therewith, which are produced by you at the Government's direction or request, shall be the sole property of the Government. This includes, without limitation, not only the complete right of publication throughout the world, but exclusive right to print, reprint, publish, copy, translate, and completely control the aforesaid reports or studies on such conditions and terms as the Government deems necessary.

4. Status. You will be entitled to annual and sick leave benefits at a rate equal to that authorized for regular employees of the United States Government. However, you will not be considered an employee of the United States Government under the terms of this contract.

5. Secrecy. This contract establishes a relationship between you and the Government which is confidential within the meaning of the Espionage Laws of 25 June 1948, as amended, and other applicable laws and regulations. You will therefore keep forever secret this contract and the relationship hereby established and all information which you may obtain by reason thereof (unless specifically released in writing by an authorized official of the Government). Failure to fulfill this obligation of secrecy may subject you to criminal prosecution under applicable laws and regulations.

6. Access to Buildings. Your access to CIA buildings and classified information will be governed by instructions from the Assistant Director for Policy Coordination or his representative designated in writing.

7. Instructions. Instructions received by you in briefing or training are deemed a part of this contract and are incorporated herein to the extent that such instructions are not inconsistent with the terms hereof.

8. Final Agreement. This contract, when executed by you and the Authorized Contracting Officer of the Government, will constitute the final and entire agreement between the parties hereto. They will not be bound by any terms, conditions, statements or representations, oral or written, not herein contained, except as may be included in the briefing and instructions contemplated hereunder.

9. Term. This contract shall be effective as of 13 November 1950 and shall continue for a period of six months up to and including 12 May 1951, subject to renewal for stipulated periods. This contract may be terminated by either party upon fifteen days' prior actual notice to the other party. Termination of this contract, however, will not release you from any provisions of security oaths which you may be required to take.
